Woman of the Year proves women can thrive in finance industry

San Ramon, CA - Local business leader, Shelley Thurlow, has been named Woman of the Year by the National Association of Professional Women. Thurlow is the regional vice president at Pinnacle Capital Mortgage Corp and has been in the finance industry since 1984. With hard work and determination, Thurlow was leading teams at the age of 19. "I have always been proud of the fact that this is a profession where women not only succeed, but thrive," Thurlow said.

Through Thurlow's leadership and management expertise, she has helped her team at PCM thrive as well. "We focus on providing an environment where everyone is respected, valued, and sees their own personal growth as part of their job," Thurlow said. She enjoys working with PCM's gifted staff to solve client problems and meet customer goals. "I love the level of teamwork at PCM, putting the best of each individual's contributions into each loan we facilitate," Thurlow said.

Thurlow is a multi-year President's Club and Chairman's Club winner for sales excellence. She currently attends events with California Association of Mortgage Professionals (CAMP), NAMB, and MBA.

The National Association of Professional Women (NAPW) is a membership-based organization that provides women with tools and resources designed to help them achieve professional success, social wellness, and financial security. For more information visit <http://www.napw.com>
